Archbishop O'Connell Invested With Pallium To-day by Cardinal Gibbons

Stood at Cathedral of the Holy Cross by Boston American staff artist.

Impressive Ceremony as Archbishop Is VESTED WITH PALLIUM

By Rush T. Jones.

When the stage lights were turned on, the scene was a most impressive one. The archbishop, dressed in his full pontifical vestments, stood at the altar, and the cardinal, in his red and white robes, stood beside him. The ceremony was a most impressive one, and the archbishop was invested with the pallium, a symbol of his office as the head of the diocese.

LITTLETON PLEADING FOR THAW'S LIFE

Orator Breaks Down As He Cites Mother's Letter Telling of Mental Weakness of Her Son—Court Deeply Affected by Recital.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. The letter written twenty-five years ago by Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw to her little son's teacher, in which she pleaded with him to bear with Harry because she thought that he was mentally irresponsible, proves that Thaw became insane at times, declared Martin Littleton to-day in his summing up in behalf of the prisoner.

Mr. Littleton was apparently not half through with his address to the jury when court adjourned for luncheon. It was thought that he would take up the remainder of the day. His plea was regarded as one of the most masterful that has been heard in this city in many years. When he came to the point where he referred to the letter written by the agonized mother to his teacher, the orator's voice trembled and there were tears in his eyes.

WIFE, MOTHER AND SISTER

HEAR PLEA

Listening closely to every word of Mr. Littleton's address, the mother, the wife and the sister of the young man for whom the speaker pleaded, sat in the front row of the courtroom. The mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, was seated next to the wife, Mrs. William Thaw, and the sister, Mrs. William Thaw, was seated next to the wife, Mrs. William Thaw.

Littleton himself alternately scanned the mother and members of the jury. Every one of the twelve men had by now given up the speaker. Their imaginations were on the idea that they were in accord with the words that were being spoken. We make no claim, said Mr. Littleton, that the prisoner is a free man. Let us leave that to the jury. Let us leave that to the jury. Let us leave that to the jury.

ROXBURY STUDENTS TO GIVE A PARTY

The students of Roxbury, in connection with the Thaw trial, are giving a party to the students of the city. The party will be given at the Roxbury High School, and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of books for the students of the city.

LITTLETON BEGINS HIS PLEA FOR THAW

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. The orator and pleader in chief for the prisoner, Martin Littleton, began his plea for Thaw's life to-day. The orator was seated at the head of the table, and the jury was seated in front of him. The orator began his plea by reading the letter written by Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw to her little son's teacher, in which she pleaded with him to bear with Harry because she thought that he was mentally irresponsible.

The first landing was made by the hammer, and the second by the fist, as George landed out when George MacArthur of the Boston Red Sox and Bill McKinnon, the ex-quarterback champion, and the former coach of the Boston Red Sox, landed with a terrible beating from the husky Mac. Mac wore his gloves into his opponent's body as a human pile driver. George was left with a sore head.

Tommy Rayson and Frank Adams put in a pretty bout for eight rounds, with Rayson going under the wire in the lead. Adams received a discolored eye early in the fight, and Rayson was teaching it up until the end of the eighth round.

THE INTENTION OF THE INHABITANTS OF this continent, North and South, is to prevent conquest of our territory and destruction of the white race in the future—BLOODY RIOT.

THE INTENTION OF THE INHABITANTS OF this continent, North and South, is to prevent conquest of our territory and destruction of the white race in the future—BLOODY RIOT.

There is a great deal of sentimental nonsense talked about the right of the poor Asiatic.

But the right of self-protection comes first.

Asia for the Asiatics, if they want to keep it for themselves; these American continents and Europe and Australia for the whites—that is the white man's idea. AND IT ISN'T GOING TO BE CHANGED.

The real Yellow Peril is HERE AT HOME. THE RAILROADS AND OTHER BIG EMPLOYERS OF LABOR WANT ASIATICS.

In Canada a commission was appointed to find out why the Japanese had recently been coming in thousands. The report "places the blame upon the Canadian Pacific Railway and other large employers of labor, at whose direct instigation the Japanese Government modified its emigrant regulations."

The Japanese Government was actually keeping its people at home. But the big railroads on this continent want the cheap labor. They want the Asiatics AS A MENACE TO THE TWO INDEPENDENT WHITE LABORERS.

And the Yellow Peril, which has resulted in bloodshed and might result in war, we discover to be the deliberate policy of corporations glad enough to take twice their share of American prosperity, but unwilling to CONTRIBUTE their share to that prosperity if they could save it by putting yellow men in place of white.

The white races of Europe learned from Aztlán and many other Mongolians and other yellow men of the East THAT ASIA HAS GOT TO BE KEPT BACK AND KEPT OUT.

The white men in all countries must see to it that organized capitalist selfishness within their borders does not let down the bars and let the yellow men in.

We have many men out of work in this country now. Will the sentimentalists ask themselves what would be the probable attitude of these men if they found themselves idle and saw ten thousand or a million yellow men working around them. ALWAYS READY TO CUT WAGES BELOW THE PRICE AT WHICH A WHITE MAN CAN WORK AND LIVE! Should we have a PEACEFUL country, free under such conditions! Would it be possible to avoid most frightful bloodshed, horrible

It is better to hurt the feelings of the sentimentalists a little now by avoiding the matter rather than to bring about a condition too frightful to be contemplated.

An Interesting Christian Science Development

Are Others Trying to Join the Christian Science Process?

Copyright, 1908, by American Social Frontiers

One bishop and various clergymen, as Mr. Strickler points out, have been offering their followers something in place of Christian Science, "equally good," as they say in drug stores when they offer a substitute.

Mr. Strickler tells them that they must take ALL of Christian Science or none. He refuses on behalf of Christian Science to allow any mixture of Christian Science healing with hypnotism or auto suggestion.

His contention is that Christian Science is the only original, reliable oasis in the desert of "error." Bishops and clergymen offering an attractive substitute are simply mirrors leading travellers off into the trackless desert.

For the "that are not Christian Scientists, but ordinary material scientists, the effort of the Christian Scientists, formerly despised, to shake off those that saw their religion as a new religion rise in the mental world what it would be to see an island rising from the sea."

The growth of religion throughout the world's history has been intensely interesting way. To see a new religion rise in the mental world what it would be to see an island rising from the sea.

The rise of the Christian Scientist, which has been extraordinary, is a part of today's life well worth studying. Certainly a new page is presented when we read Mr. Strickler for the Christian Scientists politely warning of the little boys of other denominations that want to "hitch on" with their sleds.

Hissen Not Candidate for the Democratic Nomination

EDITOR BOSTON AMERICAN

My attention has been called to an article in a Boston paper, in which it is stated that Mr. Hissen is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

I am quoted as saying that I am a Democrat and that I am not a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

My statements are correct. I am a member of the Independent League. I believe in the principle of the League, and I believe that the Independent League party will win the coming State election. I am not a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

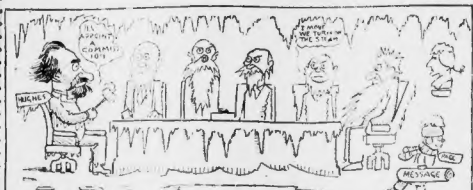

Conditions in this State are typical of those elsewhere. The Democratic party is divided among good solid authority for the statement that a house in such a condition must fall.

I think the Mr. Hissen, who has been in the position of Governor and Lincoln as nominated by Mr. Hissen, will accomplish more by building up the Independent League as a party opposed to all forms of corruption and special privilege than they can do by allying themselves with one of the corrupt
